LOS ANGELES LEAGUE OF CONSERVATION VOTERS ENDORSES RICHARD ALARCON FOR LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL, DISTRICT 7

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – Citing his strong environmental voting record and history of providing strong leadership, the Los Angeles League of Conservation Voters today announced their endorsement of current Assemblymember Richard Alarcon for Los Angeles City Council, District 7.

“Throughout his career as an elected official Richard Alarcon has displayed an untiring commitment to the environment,” said LALCV President Mitchell Schwartz. “LALCV looks forward to Assemblymember Alarcon’s return to the Los Angeles City Council”.

Assemblymember Alarcon has passionately served the San Fernando Valley for a number of decades. He served as a Deputy Mayor under Tom Bradley, as a City Councilmember representing the 7th Council District, and eight years as a Senator from the 20th Senate District.

Alarcon is looking forward to working with Mayor Villaraigosa and the other councilmembers to continue making Los Angeles a leader in smart environmental policy. He is particularly anxious to work on capping greenhouse gas emissions and protecting the Sierra watersheds.

Alarcon sees a lack of park space as one of the biggest problems facing the 7th District. He observed that park space within walking distance for many young people cannot be found. Alarcon pledges to remedy this problem by working with the council and state to increase park space for residents of the 7th district.
